Royal Kā‘anapali Golf Course

The Royal Kā‘anapali Golf Course is one of only two courses in all of Hawaii designed by Robert Trent Jones, Sr. The architect took advantage of the rolling landscape to create gently sloping fairways and large contoured greens to ensure a challenging approach to each hole. Stretching 6,700 yards, this par 71 course will challenge your club selection and putting skills. The Royal Kā‘anapali Course begins at sea level with a par 5 hole extending 550 yards. The course hugs the shoreline before winding its way to the West Maui Mountain foothills. The Royal Kā‘anapali Golf Course played host to the Champions Tour and Senior Skins game for a number of years, with Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and the likes...Arnold Palmer called the 18th hole (par 4) one of the best and most challenging finishing holes he'd ever played. The 449-yard hole plays longer than it looks, hugging the brackish water canal the entire length of the fairway and green, making it a memorable last hole.
